PERFECT BREAKS IN ONE

Vale Golf Breaks combine challenging golf with quality accommodation to provide perfect getaways for golfing enthusiasts.

If you love the outdoor life, you'll love the Vale's rolling, scenic countryside and spectacular coastline. Set in the heart of South Wales, home to the Ryder Cup 2010, it's an ideal location to test your stroke and relax with family or friends.

In the Vale of Glamorgan you can choose from a variety of challenging and championship courses, ranging from an idyllic countryside retreat to a cliff-top heathland with panoramic views. Our breaks offer the very best accommodation, from four star luxury close to Wales' capital, to cosy medieval hotels in charming coastline villages.

Unwind in one of the Vale's numerous country pubs, historic inns, chic bars and award-winning restaurants. Whether you prefer fine dining, relaxed bar food or beer gardens, there's plenty of choice when it comes to eating and drinking out.

If that wasn't enough, the Vale has an abundance of attractions. Whether it's exploring medieval castles and towns, relaxing on one of the many sandy beaches, or enjoying the Vale's unspoilt countryside, you'll find plenty to do during your stay.

We have a perfect location in South Wales. Just a short drive from the M4 and Cardiff International Airport, the Vale is very easy to reach.

Explore, revive or relax with a Vale Golf Break.

THE VALE OUR COURSES

1 SOUTHERNDOWN

Stunning costal views

One of the finest championship courses in Wales, Southerndown offers all golfers a unique golfing experience.

Southerndown's unusual terrain makes it one of the drier and best golfing courses in Wales. No artificial lakes or trees - just gorse, bracken and wind. Crafted by nature over thousands of years the course is part sandy links, part limestone heathland. It even has sheep to add interest!

Southerndown course is a hidden gem. It really does give you "Golf as it Should Be"

2 DINAS POWYS

A warm welcome

Dinas Powys Golf Club offers dramatic views over the Bristol Channel, Penarth and the Vale.

With its par 68, 5595 yard course, the club is a favourite of many golfers. Famous for its free draining soil and excellent condition, the course is available for play all year round and barely succumbs to weather, even in adverse conditions!

Only a 15 minute drive from the M4 and Cardiff's vibrant city centre, you'll find plenty to do during your stay.

PLACES TO VISIT IN THE VALE

WINDING DOWN

Around the Vale

The Vale is home to numerous country pubs, historic inns, chic bars and award-winning restaurants, offering the very best of Welsh produce. Whether you prefer fine dining, a cosy home-cooked meal in front of an open fire or dining al fresco with live music, you'll find something for to suit you.

HERITAGE COASTAL PATH

Vale of Glamorgan

Countryside enthusiasts will love the rugged cliffs, secluded coves, windswept dunes and breathtaking views that characterise the famous Heritage Coastal path. Stretching for 14 miles from Aberthaw to Porthcawl, the coastline is weaved with delightful villages and footpaths.

3 THE VALE RESORT

Championship courses

Home to Wales' highest rated four star hotel, the Vale Resort knows that the perfect golf break is about much more than golf.

Set in over 650 acres of stunning Welsh countryside the Resort boasts two championship golf courses. The expertly tended golf courses offer a mixture of mature wooded areas, wide and narrow fairways and numerous water features.

For those wanting to sharpen up their skills, the Resort is also home to the Vale Academy with its state-of-the-art coaching video equipment and GASP advanced coaching systems.

4 BRYNHILL

Friendly atmosphere

Whatever your age or golfing ability, the beautifully situated Brynhill golf club offers a superb environment in which to progress your game.

With its 18 hole, par 71/73 course, Brynhill prides itself on providing challenging golf, excellent hospitality and a friendly atmosphere. The club offers professional coaching and advice, as well as a newly fitted and well stocked shop with top quality golf equipment.

Whether you're a beginner, a family or a business, you can be sure that Brynhill has something for you.

7 RAF ST ATHAN

Tree-lined fairways

RAF St Athan Golf Club provides a testing yet accessible course in picturesque parkland, situated in the most southerly point in Wales.

Opened in 1976, RAF St Athan Golf Club is well established. With its tree-lined fairways, first-rate putting surfaces, and strategically placed bunkers, the course provides a testing golfing challenge whatever your ability. A 9 hole, par 72, 6,200 yard course, it boasts a particularly challenging 590 yard par 5 hole.

As a flat parkland course it is especially appealing to golfers who find difficulty with hillier courses but still want a testing game.

THE VALE ACCOMMODATION

The Vale of Glamorgan offers an abundance of choice when it comes to accommodation. From four star luxury, to cosy guesthouse accommodation or self catering, there's something to suit every taste.

Experience friendly, four star luxury at the Copthorne Hotel, just 4 miles from Cardiff's cosmopolitan city centre, or the world-class Vale Hotel with its award-winning Spa, tucked away in the countryside. Alternatively, you might prefer the warm and cosy atmosphere at the West House Country Hotel in Llantwit Major, or the historic Bear Hotel in the charming market town of Cowbridge. Whatever your taste, the Vale has something to suit you.
